You don't need a 'move that bus' kind of moment to make a difference. You just need to 'give a sh*t'; even on a small scale. Does whatever you do — To, For or With other people; Motivate? Are you Original? Does it get you Jazzed? Are you enthusiastic? Do you get involved? Elect to Opt-In? If you answered no to all of these, then reconsider what it is you're doing; or not doing. Then try it again and make it matter. It's the little things that can have the biggest impact. Be CIVIL! It matters!
